Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Pursuant to our telephone conversation last evening, you will be receiving from [Redacted] the names of the three people from our shop who will be with you on the 28th of March. This letter is to advise you of the [Redacted] people whom we would sponsor for the equipment demonstration. The names are as follows:

Our good friend [Redacted] will be sending forward clearance certifications per your request, and the [Redacted] people will be included in his document. As noted over the phone, Art and I are firmly tied down here and regret we cannot join you for this exercise. With best regards and appreciation for your consideration in this matter, I remain
